- 3.1.Aims of the course
- 3.2.Competences
- 4.Assessment (1st and 2nd call)
- 4.1. Assessment tasks (description of tasks, marking system and assessment criteria)
- 5. Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources
- 5.1. Methodological overview

This is an enquiry-based module, designed to encourage the students' learning autonomy. It is also expected that the students get involved in both individual and group tasks. In these tasks the students will need to engage in analysis and critical reflection of SLA and SLL-related key concepts and issues and demonstrate his/her skills in critical thinking, autonomy, decision taking, problem solving and self-assessment.

5.2.Learning tasks

Lectures. 1.2 ECTS. Onsite.

Enquiry-based activities dealing with key concepts and issues related to SLL and SLA fields: second language acquisition of English, learner language, internal and external factors of language learning, individual differences in second language learning and second language classroom instruction.

Seminar on "Research methods in SLA/SLL". 0.6 ECTS. Onsite.

This seminar will focus on the main research methods in the fields of Second Language Acquisition and Second Language learning. The students will engage both in individual and group work. The aim of the seminar is to take a close look at different research methods and assess their value for examining both formal and non-formal foreign language learning processes.

Individual and group assessment tasks. 0.6 ECTS. Onsite and offsite.

These tasks will involve analysis and problem-solving skills. They will be done individually and the outcomes will be discussed and agreed on with the group and with the whole class.

Supervised activities. 0.6 ECTS. Onsite and online.

These activities will involve critical reflection tasks, both individually and in small groups. Individual tasks will be supervised and assessed on an ongoing basis. Techniques for effective group work will also be given.

Autonomous work. 2.2 ECTS. Offsite, online

Compulsory reading, participation using the online learning platform. Individual work, search for library and electronic resources and use of Moodle.

Assessment tasks, 0.1 ECTS, Onsite.

TOTAL: 6 ECTS / 150 hours of student workload
