

Información del Plan Docente

Academic Year	2017/18
Faculty / School
Degree
ECTS	6.0
Year	---
Semester	First semester
Subject Type
Module	---

1.General information1.1.Introduction*1.2.Recommendations to take this course*1.3.Context and importance of this course in the degree*1.4.Activities and key dates*2.Learning goals*2.1.Learning goals*2.2.Importance of learning goals*3.Aims of the course and competences*3.1.Aims of the course*3.2.Competences*4.Assessment (1st and 2nd call)*4.1.Assessment tasks (description of tasks, marking system and assessment criteria)*5.Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources*5.1.Methodological overview

The methodology followed in this course is oriented towards the drafting of an opinion and further defense before an examining board. Working under the guidance and supervision of a director, students will present a legal problem and discuss possible solutions within the Spanish legal system, selecting the most suitable for a hypothetical client.

60746 - Master's Dissertation

Candidates should reflect an entirely autonomous and personal work in the development of his work.

5.2.Learning tasks

Learning tasks will be programmed by directors of Graduate Dissertation.

According to the current regulation, all teachers supervising Graduate Dissertations must be PhD holders in any branch of law, since all of them are connected to this Master's Degree. Furthermore, projects can be also directed by lawyers belonging to the teaching staff or having been external tutors during the internship period.

Once enrolled, students can request that his project be directed by a certain teacher. In case the student does not want to make any request or the requested teacher refused the application, a new application form will have to be addressed to the Master's Coordinator who will eventually allocate remaining teachers among the students.

Students with an academic tutor assigned are to submit a form to the Secretariat including their own personal data, director's name and signature, and the title proposed for his/her work no later than the 10 October.

5.3.Syllabus

Given the specific nature of this subject, the learning activities are limited to tutoring sessions with the project supervisor.

5.4.Course planning and calendar

Deposit

Final reports must be deposit in DEPOSITA (<http://deposita.unizar.es>). At the same time, candidates will inform the Secretariat of the faculty about their intention to defend the job by sending an application signed by their supervisor. Four printed copies must be handed over as well.

Deadlines for the deposit

- Candidates in the first period (January) must deposit the by 15 December.
- Candidates in the second period (September) must deposit by the end of July (last school day).

Defence

Students enrolled in the program can defend their job a maximum of two times, in any of this periods:

60746 - Master's Dissertation

- During the first 15 calendar days of January

During the school days in September after the delivery of the evaluation reports.

5.5. Bibliography and recommended resources

Given the specific nature of this subject, its bibliography and further resources will be fully determined by each director.