The learning process designed for this course is based on an active method, given that the student is integrated in a private or public organization to take an apprenticeship in it. The student becomes the agent of his/her own education through personal research, direct contact with reality and the experience with the work group where he belongs. This method is based on:

- A strong motivation in the learning process.
- A growing difficulty.
- The establishment of a bridge between academic theoretical abstraction and practical reality.
- The detection of errors.
- The student's autonomy.

27556 - Internships II
