

27724 - Aragonese Civil Law

Syllabus Information

Academic Year: 2019/20

Subject: 27724 - Aragonese Civil Law

Faculty / School: 102 -

Degree: 421 - Degree in Law

ECTS: 6.0

Year: 3

Semester: Second semester

Subject Type: Compulsory

Module: ---

1.General information

1.1.Aims of the course

1.2.Context and importance of this course in the degree

1.3.Recommendations to take this course

2.Learning goals

2.1.Competences

2.2.Learning goals

2.3.Importance of learning goals

3.Assessment (1st and 2nd call)

3.1.Assessment tasks (description of tasks, marking system and assessment criteria)

4.Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources

4.1.Methodological overview

The methodology followed in this course is oriented towards the achievement of the learning objectives. It pursues that the student is a partner in the learning process, motivating the constancy and behavior of being in a continuous formative process. So the methodology combines, on the one hand, the face-to-face system in the classroom (with theoretical classes together with practical teaching based on the case model, exposure and debate by the students) and, on the other, the system of guided and independent work by the student that takes place outside the classroom.

4.2.Learning tasks

The course includes the following learning tasks:

- Lectures. Expository activities and systematization of knowledge by the professor. This kind of classes provide students with a theoretical first contact with the concepts and basic knowledge of the subject that will allow him, later, to carry out a more effective personal work and, in the end, a better learning of the subject, being able to train him for a more clear identification of the problems related to the Aragonese civil law matters and to try to design the ways of legal solution to them.
- Practice sessions. Practical teaching based on model cases, exhibition and debate of the students. These activities promotes intervention of the students in the classroom, it is facilitated to develop the capacity to identify and analyze the legal problems, as well as its critical sense and its skill for the oral presentation making use of the technical-juridical language of the subject. These activities may also consist of the study and analysis of judgments, the preparation of legal documents or the holding of seminars of diverse content.

- Autonomous work, tutorials, work and evaluation activities.

4.3.Syllabus

The course will address the following topics:

Section I. ?General Part?.

- Topic 1. Past and Present of Aragonese Civil Law
- Topic 2. The Sources of the Aragonese Civil Law
- Topic 3. Law of Persons

Section II. Family Law

- Topic 4. Family Law in Aragon
- Topic 5. Unmarried Couples
- Topic 6. Matrimonial Property (Regime). Separation of Assets
- Topic 7. Community of Joint Assets
- Topic 8. The Right Aragonese of widowhood

Section III. Succession Law Upon Death

- Topic 9. General Provision
- Topic 10. Common Rules for Voluntary Successions. Testamentary Sucesión
- Topic 11. Contractual Succession
- Topic 12. Fiduciary Succession in Aragon
- Topic 13. Legitimate Portion in Aragon
- Topic 14. Legal Succession

Section IV. Law of Property

- Topic 15. Property Law. Neighbourly Relations. Servitudes. Law of ?Abolorio? (Preferential Right to Acquire Property). Livestock Contracts.

Each professor will provide students with a detailed program in which these contents will be developed at the beginning of the explanations of the subject

4.4.Course planning and calendar

Regarding the specific deployment of the activities, each professor will prepare for his group the set of programmed activities and the schedule of the subject.

Magazines and other materials

Since 1995 there is the Aragonese Civil Law Magazine, edited by the "Fernando el Católico" Institution (CSIC) of the Diputación de Zaragoza, which can be consulted at http://www.unizar.es/derecho/standum_est_chartae or <http://ifc.dpz.es/publicaciones/biblioteca2/id/10>

Everything published on Aragonese Law since the printing press until 2003 (with subsequent updates) has been digitized and can be consulted at the Aragonese Virtual Law Library (8 DVDs and 1 CD), of which there are several copies in the Library faculty. It can also be consulted on the Internet: <http://www.derechoaragones.es> or <http://www.bivida.es>

For the activities of the subject, see the section "activities and resources" of this teaching guide, which will be completed at the beginning of the course with the information related to the teaching of each professor or teaching team.

Regarding the key dates, the subject is taught in the second semester and the corresponding links can be consulted on the website of the Faculty of Law to obtain information about the academic calendar, the class schedules of each group and the classrooms where are given, as well as the dates of the official announcement of the subject exams.

4.5.Bibliography and recommended resources