4.1.Methodological overview

In the subject Psychopathology and Therapeutic Interventions II, we will employ a participative methodology, using the flipped classroom methodology as referent. We will stimulate critical thinking, by analyzing and discussing about the usefulness of the different theoretical approaches to therapy. This way, our purpose is to help student to choose the theoretical approach that fits better their goals in their future work as psychologists.

Note: in case the COVID-19 sanitary alert recommends distance learning, this methodology would be adapted to online systems such as Moodle, Google Meets, or equivalent.
