1. General information

2. Learning goals

3. Assessment (1st and 2nd call)

4. Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources

4.1. Methodological overview

The aim of the Dissertation is to enable students to apply and develop a range of skills and competences acquired throughout the Degree. Students are expected to show their competence in planning, writing and defending a piece of research on a topic. This process is mainly based on the student's autonomous work but his/her progress will be supervised by a supervisor in tutorials throughout the academic year.

4.2. Learning tasks

The student is expected to attend an induction section in which guidelines for initial dissertation preparation will be provided.

To prepare the dissertation draft, the student is expected to engage in autonomous work (use of the library, reviewing the literature, writing the draft of the dissertation and revising the draft).

Additionally, the student can set up regular appointments for office hour consultation.

4.3. Syllabus

Each student will choose a topic for his/her dissertation from one of the available research lines.

4.4. Course planning and calendar

For further information (timetable, academic and administrative activities related to the dissertation), please refer to the following website: "Facultad de Filosofía y Letras" (<https://fyl.unizar.es/Informaciónacadémica>) / "Trabajo de Fin de Grado/Máster".

More information will be provided on the first day of class.
