Degree: 450 - Degree in Marketing and Market Research

ECTS: 6.0

Year: 2

Semester: Second semester

Subject Type: Compulsory

Module:

1. General information

2. Learning goals

3. Assessment (1st and 2nd call)

3.1. Assessment tasks (description of tasks, marking system and assessment criteria)

As in the FIRST CALL as in the SECOND CALL the student will prove that he/she has achieved the expected learning outcomes by means of a GLOBAL assessment system structured in any of the following modes:

MODE A:

The assessment will be carried out by means of the activities proposed in classes and a written exam.

ACTIVITIES (30% weight of final mark): They consist of practical cases and theoretical-practical questions based on financial reporting of a company to be solved and discussed by the student at class. There will be one activity in every topic of the syllabus, at least. These activities require that student carries out previous work at class or out of the class. The assessment of these activities will be the arithmetic mean of the valuation of all of them.

WRITTEN EXAM (70% of final mark): This exam will deal with the contents of topics 1 to 7 of the syllabus and will be taken on the date of the official call set by the Faculty in the calendar of exams. This exam will consist of theoretical and practical questions that can be closed-ended questions (multiple-choice) or open-ended questions, so students shall prove that has assimilated and understood the basic concepts of the subject.

To pass the subject with Mode A, the mark of the written exam should be equal to or greater than 4 (out of 10) and the final weighted mark of the written exam and the mark of the proposed activities shall be equal to or greater than 5 (out of 10). If the resulting mark obtained by the student using the weights above is less than the mark obtained in the written exam, the final mark of the course will be the latter (that to pass the subject shall be equal to or greater than 5 (out of 10)). In the event that the student gets a mark less than 4 in the written exam, the final mark will be the mark of the written exam.

The mark of the proposed activities will be kept for the second call.

Mode B:

This mode consist of a written exam in which the student shall get a mark of 5 out of 10. This exam will deal with the contents of topics 1 to 7 of the syllabus and will be taken on the date of the official call set by the Faculty in the calendar of exams. This exam will consist of theoretical and practical questions that can be closed-ended questions (multiple-choice) or open-ended questions, so students shall prove that has assimilated and understood the basic concepts of the subject.

4. Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources

4.1. Methodological overview

The methodology followed in this course is oriented towards the achievement of the learning objectives. A wide range of teaching and learning tasks are implemented, such as lectures, practice sessions, autonomous work, study and assessment tasks.

Students are expected to participate actively in class throughout the semester.

Further information regarding the course will be provided on the first day of class.

The teaching methodology is planned for face-to-face classes. However, if necessary for health reasons, teaching could be delivered on line

4.2. Learning tasks

The course includes the following learning tasks:

- Lectures (60 hours). These will involve the description and explanation of basic concepts referring to the disclosure of accounting reporting by companies; in particular, dealing with the content of the annual accounts. In these lectures, the participation of students will be essential to discuss the main concepts analysed in each session. Lectures will last 2 hours and will include a revision of the most relevant concepts and the explanation of new concepts, finishing with a summary of the most relevant points of the lecture. Students will have at their disposal the recommended bibliography for each topic and they are expected to review it in detail before attending the corresponding lecture.
- Practice sessions (30 hours). Every week, besides the lecture, students will attend a practice session to solve cases. There will be two types of problems and cases. Some of them will be designed to consolidate and to help to understand the most relevant issues explained in the lectures. Others will deal with real business information, working with annual reports of companies that are publicly traded for easy access to the information. Some problems and cases will be done individually but there will be other cases that will be solved by groups of 2-3 people using the methodology of the cooperative learning. Some of these cases solved in groups will have to be presented to the other class members during classes.
- Autonomous work (90 hours). It will consist of 30 reading hours and personal reflection about the syllabus topics or the bibliography, 30 hours to complete the group task and 30 hours to do in autonomous exercises, participating in learning platforms and tutorials.

The assessment will be prepared to be carried out as face-to-face examination, but if health circumstances do not allow it, they will be carried out by doing it entirely online or in a blended way. In the case of online exams, it is important to highlight that, the student may be recorded, and he or she can exercise his or her rights by the procedure indicated in.
