Semester: First semester

Subject Type: Optional

Module:

1. General information

2. Learning goals

3. Assessment (1st and 2nd call)

4. Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources

4.1. Methodological overview

The learning process that has been designed for this subject is based on the following:

The learning process is active and students' involvement and effort are essential for their development and professional growth. The teacher will provide a variety of resources to facilitate learning, including the Digital Teaching Platform (ADD). The detailed schedule of learning activities will be provided taking into account the context in which the teaching of each group develops: calendar, classrooms, schedules, groups, number of students per class, teacher teaching load, etc.

The teaching methodology is planned for face-to-face classes. However, if necessary for health reasons, teaching could be delivered on line

4.2. Learning tasks

The program that the student is offered to help achieve the expected results includes the following activities:

Activity	Number of hours
Theory sesión	20
Practice session	30
Autonomous work and study	65
Assessment	10
Total	125

Teaching activities ("Lectures") will basically consist of lectures with the group as a whole, where the theoretical foundations of the subject will be presented and references will be provided.

Teaching activities "Classroom Practicum" will mean a more practical approach to the subject, through exchange of ideas, discussions, problems, cases, individual and / or group, tests in the classroom (role playing with different negotiation situations), case studies (depending on the subjects in class).

The assessment will be prepared to be carried out as face-to-face examination, but if health circumstances do not allow it, they will be carried out by doing it entirely online or in a blended way. In the case of online exams, it is important to highlight that, the student may be recorded, and he or she can exercise his or her rights by the procedure indicated in.
