Faculty / School: 177 - Escuela Universitaria de Turismo

Degree: 616 - Degree in Tourism

ECTS: 6.0

Year: 2

Semester: First semester

Subject Type: Compulsory

Module:

1. General information

2. Learning goals

3. Assessment (1st and 2nd call)

4. Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources

4.1. Methodological overview

The subject has a double dimension: theoretical and practical. The teaching methodology combines, on the one hand, the face-to-face system in the classroom (theoretical classes and practical teaching based on the case model, presentation and debate by students) and, on the other, the non-face-to-face and autonomous work system of the student that takes place outside the classroom (personal study at home, in the library, etc.) for which the use of the MOODLE platform of the subject will be essential.

The methodological model of the subject is based on an intense reading (manual, notes and legal regulations indicated by the teacher) and on the constant reflection of the students, especially during the resolution of practical cases.

4.2. Learning tasks

TEACHING ACTIVITIES:

- Expository-participative face-to-face classes.
- Practical information sessions.
- Study of real cases and sentences.
- Led class discussions.
- Document analysis, especially journalistic news.
- Guided visits to public institutions (Zaragoza Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Aragonese Development Institute, etc.) or private companies.
- Talks by invited specialists.
- Knowledge tests.
- Individual and group tutorials.

NON-PRESENTIAL ACTIVITIES:

- Online teaching: students will have at their disposal on the MOODLE platform various materials, such as texts, notes, diagrams, practical cases, sentences, activity guide, work calendar, etc.

The student is encouraged to participate actively using the "Forum of doubts and queries" as a space for study and debate.
- Practices and non-face-to-face tests: Eventually, the teacher may ask the students to solve cases and assessable tasks through the MOODLE platform.
