5. Assessment system

The subject will be evaluated by means of a single global test it will consist of two parts:

- Written exam: it will assess mastery of the theoretical knowledge of the subject (50%):
 - 3 to 6 short questions (30%)
 - Development theme (20%)
- Practice Folder: the application of the didactic proposals will be evaluated (50%) the application of the didactic proposals (50%):
 - An individual work
 - Two group works.

The evaluation is aggregate (the grades of the different parts are added in the percentages indicated) and it is necessary to pass each of the two parts of the evaluation in order to pass the subject.

When a part has not been passed, the grade of the failed part weighted out of 10 will be recorded in the minutes and will keep the grade of the passed part only for the second call. As part of the evaluation, the faculty may request the oral defense of any written test or assignment. Spelling mistakes will be penalized with up to 50% of the maximum possible grade, although the penalty will not result in failure. The delivery of practices and works will be made on the date of the evaluation test or continuously in the form and conditions that will be established in due subject.

In the second call it will also be evaluated by means of an exam and practical portfolio, as well as in the fifth and sixth calls that will be evaluated by the corresponding examining board.
