The goal of the Final Degree Project (DFP) is the completion of a written report in which the knowledge, skills, aptitudes and attitudes acquired by the student throughout the Bachelor's Degree in Tourism are shown. The topic of the work will be adjusted to the student's interest, taking into account scientific rigor and innovation in the subject. The development of the work will be an autonomous task of the student, who will have a director to supervise and supervise the evolution of his/her work. The DFP will conclude with a public defense before a board of examiners.

These approaches and goals are aligned with the following Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations Agenda 2030 (<https://www.un.org/sustainabledevelopment/es/>), such that the acquisition of the learning results of the subject provides training and competence to contribute to some extent to the achievement of the 17 SDGs in their entirety, recognising the multiple approaches to the study of tourism science.
