

30508 - Penal Law: Special Part

Syllabus Information

Academic year: 2023/24

Subject: 30508 - Penal Law: Special Part

Faculty / School: 102 - Facultad de Derecho

Degree: 432 - Joint Law - Business Administration and Management Programme

ECTS: 9.0

Year: 2

Semester: Second semester

Subject type: Compulsory

Module:

1. General information

The academic approach of the subject of Criminal Law, Special Part, has as its main goal that the student to know, interpret and correctly apply all the criminal offenses of our criminal legal system.

This goal is aligned with the Sustainable Development Goal of the United Nations 2030 Agenda number 16 PEACE, JUSTICE AND SOUND INSTITUTIONS, so that the acquisition of the learning results of the course provides training and competence to contribute to some extent to its achievement

2. Learning results

- Know, understand, interpret and critically analyze the different crimes included in the Criminal Code and in special criminal laws special criminal laws.
- Know and understand the elements of the legal theory of crime as applied to specific crimes.
- Know and understand the problems regarding the concurrence of laws and crimes.
- Identify the legal-penal problems of criminal offenses.
- Acquire skills for the presentation and resolution of practical cases in criminal matters. Analyze the criminal jurisprudence.
- Work in a team assuming different roles.

3. Syllabus

- Crimes against life.
- Injuries
- Offenses related to genetic manipulation.
- Crimes against freedom.
- Crimes against moral integrity.
- Human trafficking.
- Crimes against sexual freedom.
- Omission of the duty to assist.
- Crimes against privacy, the right to one's own image and the inviolability of the home.
- Crimes against honor.
- Crimes against family relations.
- Crimes against patrimony and socioeconomic order.
- Illegal financing of political parties.
- Crimes against the Public Treasury and Social Security.
- Crimes against workers' rights.
- Crimes against the rights of foreign citizens.
- Crimes related to land and urban planning, protection of historical heritage and the environment
- Crimes against collective security.
- Falsehood offenses.
- Crimes against public administration.
- Crimes against the Administration of Justice.
- Crimes against the Constitution.
- Crimes against public order.
- Crimes of treason and against the peace or independence of the State, and relating to national defense.
- Crimes against the international community.

4. Academic activities

- Lecture activities and systematization of knowledge by the teaching staff: 54 hours.
- Dynamic activities for teachers and students (solving case studies, practices in and out of the classroom and seminars): 30 hours.
- Personal study of the student, tutoring, work completion: 46.5 hours.
- Assessment activities: 4.5 hours.

5. Assessment system

There are two systems:

1) Mixed system consisting of the following activities:

a) Assessment of active participation through the completion of tests, assignments or case studies throughout the term.

The overall result of these will be weighted by 30% of the final grade.

In any case, students who have not achieved an average of 5 (pass) in this part of the grade, will have to the other assessment method, based exclusively on the final global test.

b) Final global test. It will consist of a series of theoretical-practical questions to be answered based on the learning results that have been developed during the term. The grade will be weighted 70% in the final grade . Students who do not obtain in this final written test a minimum grade of 5 out of 10 points will not pass the subject. Only on the basis of this score will the assessment grade of the activities developed during the course be weighted.

2) Simple system based exclusively on the final global test consisting of two parts:

a) The completion of the test of the previous section (final global test).

b) Completion of a written exercise on the content of the subject, which demonstrates that they know how to analyze an issue from the perspective of criminal law

The final grade of the overall test will be obtained from the weighted average of the exam grades, 70% for the first part and 30% for the second part, although in order to pass it is necessary to achieve at least a 5 out of 10 in each of them.