Module:

1. General information

This subject is aimed at the knowledge of Aragonese Civil Law (art. 149.1.8ª CE), contained in the Code of the Foral Law. It includes a reference to its history and an overview of its regulations (sources, person, family, inheritance and patrimonial) which, as far as possible, avoids reiterating matters already addressed in the thematic subjects (person and property, family and inheritance) and pays more attention to Aragonese institutions with no equivalent in the civil law of the State.

These approaches and goals are aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the 2030 Agenda of United Nations (<https://www.un.org/sustainabledevelopment/es/>), specifically, the learning activities planned in this subject can contribute to the achievement of Goals 4, 5, 10 and 16.

2. Learning results

- Identify, understand and expose the legal institutions of Aragonese civil law, as well as give an account of its evolution to its current formulation, all in accordance with the program of the subject
- Interpret the rules of Aragonese civil law in the light of the doctrine and jurisprudence on them in order to draw the relevant legal consequences
- Incorporate in their written and oral argumentation the legal concepts and terms of Aragonese civil law.
- Apply their knowledge of Aragonese civil law, as well as their ability to interpret its rules, to the resolution of questions and practical cases
- Search, find and apply legal, jurisprudential and doctrinal texts, especially through the use of ICT, for the resolution of practical cases of Aragonese civil law
