

26129 - Undergraduate Dissertation

Syllabus Information

Academic year: 2024/25

Subject: 26129 - Undergraduate Dissertation

Faculty / School: 108 - Facultad de Ciencias Sociales y del Trabajo

Degree: 274 - Degree in Social Work

ECTS: 10.0

Year: 4

Semester: Second semester

Subject type: End of Grade Dissertation

Module:

1. General information

Its main goal is to allow the student to show in an integrated way the formative contents received, and the competences and skills acquired in relation to the context with the reality in which they have to be applied. The student must demonstrate that at the end of his/her studies they are able to interrelate the different subjects he/she has dealt with in the Degree and to present and defend them.

2. Learning results

-Knows and understands the purpose and processes of design, implementation and evaluation of social intervention projects, as well as the mechanisms for planning the actions necessary for their development.

-Knows and understands the ways of systematization and presentation of social research applied to social work and to academic and professional work.

-Knows and understands the ways of systematization and exposition of the practice of professional activity

-Knows and understands the mechanisms of analysis of social work practice oriented to the promotion of good social work practices.

-Exposes both the written report and the oral presentation in a clear, structured and comprehensible manner

-Correctly defend your work before a public hearing

3. Syllabus

The subject does not have a Program as such. Each director will agree with the student the supervision sessions and tutoring, and will give the pertinent orientations for the completion of the work.

All information related to the whole process will be published on the centre's website <https://sociales.unizar.es/trabajo-social/trabajo-fin-de-grado>

4. Academic activities

The DFP will consist of carrying out an original work of one of the 3 modalities (research report, design of a project or systematisation of an experience) in which the knowledge, skills, aptitudes and attitudes acquired by the student throughout the degree course will be shown.

Students must demonstrate that at the end of their studies they have a broad knowledge of the different subjects and be able to present and defend them.

Work can be done individually or in groups of up to 3 people. The defence will always be individual.

The Degree Final Project will have a director to supervise and supervise the student's work, who may belong to any of the areas of knowledge represented in the Degree.

The topic of the work will be established by mutual agreement between the student and the director within the thematic lines proposed by the Departments.

Tutoring requires sessions that each Director must establish with his or her student.

5. Assessment system

-Completion of the final thesis, whose supervision and assessment corresponds to the director who supervises the TFG.

-Presentation and public defence of the DFP. The Director will evaluate it:

1.- FORMAT (Maximum 1 point)

1.1 Formal Aspects

Written communication or writing skills

Structure: title, table of contents, summary, introduction, objectives, data recording and analysis, reflections, conclusions and annexes.

Extension

References: bibliography, resources, videos, software, surveys, interviews, databases, etc

2.- CONTENT (Maximum 6 points)

2.1 Justification of the chosen work (Maximum 0.5 points)

2.2 Approach, development and achievement of goals (Maximum 2.5 points)

Approach and scope of the work: definition of objectives Development of the work according to the established goals Degree of achievement of the goals set

2.3 Clarity in the development (Maximum 1 point)

Theoretical framework, contextualization, sources of information, methodology

2.4 Conclusions (Maximum 1 point)

Relevance, usefulness, appropriateness

2.5 Bibliography (Maximum 1 point)

Adequacy to the content of the work and method of citing it

3.- EXHIBITION AND DEFENSE (Maximum 3 points)

3.1 Presentation (Maximum 2 points)

? Clarity, originality, adjustment to the established time, content adjusted to the presented DFP

3.2 Defence (Maximum 1 point)

Ability to respond to the questions asked

-Presentation and public defence of the Degree Final Project before a Board of Examiners (in order to obtain an Honours Degree): must have the endorsement of the direction of the DFP

6. Sustainable Development Goals

1 - End of Poverty

4 - Quality Education

5 - Gender Equality