These internships constitute a training resource for learning professional practice whose importance is reinforced by the complexity of the current socio-educational context and the diversity of its classrooms.

Contact with school reality is an opportunity to verify, contrast and put into practice the competences and attitudes that the students have acquired and reflected on, both in the generic subjects and in those of the mention.

Recommendations for taking the subject

This course is made possible thanks to the generosity of the teachers and management teams of the Early Childhood Education Schools that collaborate as internship centers. Activity B. Seminars (one initial and one intermediate) in which the lecturer of the subject brings together the students of the practicals for discussion, debate and guidance of the different activities in the periodic meetings with the tutor of the faculty; and individual work session in which the lecturer receives each of the students for an oral presentation and debate with the goal of assessing the practicals report.

Activity C. Presence of the student in a school center for 168 hours, which is equivalent to 28 school days, at a rate of 6 hours per day in the center.

5. Assessment system

Type of tests and their value on the final grade and evaluation criteria for each test

Students must demonstrate that they have achieved the intended learning results by means of the following assessment activities

Activity A:

1. The student doing the internship in the second cycle of Early Childhood Education, will make a study on the curricular project (PCE) and the Plan of Attention to Diversity, in these sections:

- What are the objectives of the PCE
- What are the objectives of the Plan of Attention to Diversity (general and specific measures; human, temporary, material and didactic resources oriented to the attention to diversity and personal analysis of the measures that are implemented in the center specifically in the infant stage).

The student doing the internship in the first cycle of early childhood education will make an analysis of the methodologies and if measures of attention to diversity that are contemplated in the educational center (in the educational project, in the classroom programming, in the attention to families, coordination with external services (early care team), etc.) are adopted.

2. Analysis of coordination in the early childhood education stage and its linkage in the Early Childhood Education classroom:

- Direct observation and analysis of organizational models in kindergarten classrooms and early childhood education schools. - Observation of routines and analysis of the teaching activity: mastering the skills and habits that allow the development of the classroom work.

4. Analysis and reflection on the lessons learned during the internship. Some of the questions to consider could be: how do you perceive your teaching activity to have been, what did you learn during the internship, how do you think these lessons will affect your future teaching practice, what aspects do you need to keep in mind in order to continue improving, in what way have they contributed to shape you as a person, how, have they contributed to shape you as a teacher, how...

Grading criteria and requirements for passing the subject

In order to pass this subject it is necessary to obtain a passing grade (5 out of 10) in each and every one of the evaluation activities A, B and C as indicated in the evaluation criteria described. If in any of the evaluation activities the minimum requirement is not met, the final grade will be equal to 4.0 or the sum of the grades obtained in activities A, B and C if it is less than 4.0.

Prerequisite

Attendance at the practice center during the entire official period and taking all the hours of attendance is a necessary condition for the student to be evaluated in the subject. A maximum of 15% of justified absences will be accepted. Both justified and unjustified causes must be notified (and justified if necessary) to the tutor of the University and to the tutor of the internship center. All absences must be made up within the official internship period, as far as possible, and it is not possible to extend the internship period, unless the Faculty reviews and approves the modification of the end date of the internship. However, unexcused absences, apart from having to be made up, subtract 0.1 points from the final grade for each hour of absence.

Exceptionality of the assessment

"Exceptionally, those subjects that due to their special practical or clinical dimension and in which students must necessarily demonstrate their knowledge or skills in facilities or locations outside the conventional classroom, may be evaluated only by the continuous evaluation modality. This exceptionality must be declared by the Undergraduate Studies Commission, applying, in any case, only to the practical dimension of the subject."
