

30503 - Civil law: individual and assets

Syllabus Information

Academic year: 2024/25

Subject: 30503 - Civil law: individual and assets

Faculty / School: 102 - Facultad de Derecho

Degree: 432 - Joint Law - Business Administration and Management Programme

ECTS: 9.0

Year: 1

Semester: Second semester

Subject type: Basic Education

Module:

1. General information

The subject aims to introduce and familiarize the student with the contents, competences and skills of the basic rules of civil law concerning the person and property.

It is structured around the rules in the private legal sphere and the role they play in the Spanish legal system as a whole, characterised by the plurality of civil rights; the natural person and legal persons; and property, subjective law, real rights and the Land Registry.

These approaches and goals are aligned with the following Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations Agenda 2030 (<https://www.un.org/sustainabledevelopment/es/>), so that the acquisition of the learning results of the subject provides training and competence to contribute to some extent to the achievement of target 10.3 of Goal 10, and target 16.3 of Goal 16.

2. Learning results

In order to pass this subject, the students shall demonstrate they has acquired the following results:

Identify and legally qualify the institutions referred to the general part of private law, and the law of the person and property law.

Differentiate the different types of rights in rem and define their function, their rules of constitution and operation.

Apply to the resolution of practical cases the system of sources of the private-legal system.

Interpret the rules that regulate the person and property, in order to draw the relevant legal consequences.

Use ICT (Information and Communication Technologies) to search and obtain legal information to solve practical cases.

3. Syllabus

1. Civil law. Standards in the private legal sphere.
2. Private autonomy, legal relationship and subjective right.
3. Personal rights. Birth and extinction. Personality rights.
4. Legal capacity and capacity to act. Age. Measures to support persons with disabilities in the exercise of their legal capacity.
5. Address. Absence. Nationality and civilian citizenship. The marital status and its publicity.
6. Legal entity, associations and foundations.
7. Assets and equity. Right over assets.
8. Object and publicity of real rights. The Property Registry.
9. Property: concept and limitations. Community of property.
10. Limited rights in rem.
11. Intangible assets and rights.

4. Academic activities

Master classes: Activities in which the teacher will explain the syllabus and systematize knowledge.

Problems and cases: Dynamic activities consisting of the resolution of practical cases presented by the professor.

Work elaboration.

Study of the subject: Preparation of classes and practical activities by the student.

Assessment tests.

5. Assessment system

Two assessment systems are established: a mixed one based on a process of assessment of different activities developed during the term plus a final test (1) and another, simple, consisting of a global final test (2), all in compliance with the current Regulations on learning assessment rules (Agreement of 22 December 2010 of the Governing Council of the University of Zaragoza).

1. Mixed system:

a) Assessment of activities developed during the term:

During the semester, students will be required to carry out different case studies, assignments or tests, as well as to participate in their exposition or debate in the classroom. The overall result will be weighted by 30% in the final grade. Partial grades will be provided to the student. The grade obtained in these examinations may be kept for the second round.

b) final theoretical test: it will consist of a questionnaire of several questions that will be weighted 70% of the final grade.

2. Single examination system. It will be applied to those who have not attended and actively participated in the classes and activities of the term; or who do not reach the minimum grade. It will consist of two parts:

a) Resolution of a practical case which will be weighted 30% of the final grade.

b) Theoretical test consisting of a questionnaire with several questions that will be weighted 70%.

The same assessment systems will be applied in the second round.

6. Sustainable Development Goals

10 - Reduction of Inequalities

16 - Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions