The activities are divided into:
Master class 22.5 hours of lecture sessions
37.5 hours of practical content, analysis of texts, essays, debates, etc., as well as visits to institutions
Student work 12 hours

5. Assessment system

1.-Mixed system

a) Attendance to face-to-face sessions. Those who have attended and actively participated in all sessions will receive a grade of 10 out of 10. If the student has missed any session or has not participated in an outstanding way, the grade will be 9.5 out of 10. If there have been 2 or more absences, up to a maximum of 50% of the sessions, the student must prepare works on the material provided by the teacher whose sessions could not be attended.

b) Production of a work At the end of the course, an individual or small group work (maximum 3 persons) will be presented. The topic can be chosen between an equality plan or a commentary on prostitution. The minimum length shall be 5 pages. The summary of the facts of pronouncement shall only be 1 page long. The length will be proportional to the number of authors. It will be graded out of 10.

c) The final grade will be the average of a and b

2.- Simple system based exclusively on the final global test.

The teacher in charge will indicate the summary, commentary, or reading that will replace the face-to-face sessions and a final test of all the contents taught will be given on the dates indicated in the master's calendar.
